A. DUTIES & POWERS OF THE CENTRE SUPERINTENDENT:

The foremost duty of the Centre Superintendent is to ensure that the examination is conducted (i) in time, (ii) according to the given instructions, (iii) in a peaceful and conducive manner and the final reports, accounts, etc. are submitted within a week's time after the last date of examination.

In performing the duties of the Centre Superintendent, the following duties are to be executed by him/her before, during and after the examination.

1. Instruction:

The CS shall acquaint himself/herself with the rules and guidelines issued by the Board for the conduct of examinations. The CS should be present at the centre on all days of examination.

- (i) Before the first day of the examination, the CS shall apprise the Assistant Centre Superintendent(s) and the invigilators of their duties and responsibilities. They shall be directed to perform their duties as per the rules.
- (ii) The CS shall ensure that the instructions to examinees, penalties for malpractices and violation of rules are pasted on the notice board or at some prominent places for the information of the examinees.

2. Convener of Examination Centre Committee:

- (i) There shall be only 1(one) Examination Centre Committee for both the HSSLC and HSLC Examinations in a place.
- (ii) In places, where there are 2 (two) centres or more, the CS of Centre-1 shall be the Secretary of the Examination Centre Committee. It will be the responsibility of the CS of Centre-1 to convene the meeting of the Examination Centre Committee.

3. Blank answer booklets:

- i) CS on receipt of the packets from the Board shall check and ensure that the supplied materials such as answer booklets, additional sheets and other stationeries are sufficient.
- ii) CS shall be the custodian for the supplied materials and shall be personally responsible for it.
- iii) CS shall ensure that the blank answer booklets are serialized and distributed according to the serial numbers. All answer booklets must bear the signature/ signature seal of the CS at the given space on the cover of the answer booklets to be issued.
- iv) Only ruled answer booklets shall be issued or used in all the subjects.
- v) An account of the answer booklets shall be maintained on the following- (a) the number of answer booklets received with their serial numbers, (b) the serial numbers of the answer booklets issued room-wise and day-wise, and (c) the serial numbers of the defective answer booklets.
- vi) On each day of the examination, the account of the answer booklets shall be checked to ensure that no blank answer booklets are missing.
- vii) The surplus answer booklets of each day shall not be mixed up with the other unused answer booklets. If there is a requirement and these surplus answer booklets are used, it shall be reported in the daily report.

4. Despatch of answer booklets:

Immediately after the examination of a particular subject, answer booklets shall be collected, sorted out and serially arranged according to the roll nos. of the examinees.

(a) Packing:

- i) The answer booklets of each subject shall be packed separately with the supplied packing paper, markin cloth, stitched and sealed. Each packet should contain 250 or less answer booklets. If a centre has more than 250 examinees, the answer booklets shall be packed in 2 (two) equal packets and labelled as packet 1 and 2, mentioning the name of the subject in each packet. A copy of the filled in forwarding letter shall be placed inside the packet.
- ii) (a) For subjects like the second language or sixth subjects/vocational subjects having less than 150 examinees, packing shall be done separately for each subject with its own forwarding letter. After which, the packets of all the second languages shall be packed together in the supplied markin cloth, stitched and sealed.

Similarly, the packets of all the sixth subjects/vocational subjects should be packed together as 1(one) packet instead of 2 or 3 small packets.
- (b) Answer booklets for different subjects and different languages shall be arranged and packed separately with packing paper.

Each packet shall have a separate forwarding letter (form no. 25/60).
- iii) The answer booklets shall neither be rolled nor folded.
- iv) The forwarding letter of the answer booklets (form no. 25/60) must be correctly filled in. The statement of absentees and expelled examinees shall be entered in the given space. The first copy of this form (not the carbon copy) must be sent along with the packet of answer booklets. The second copy shall be sent along with the final report.
- v) The CS is directed to use the correct colour code, subject code, date and name of the centre on the packets.

vi) The colour codes given below shall be used:-

1. HSSLC Examination : a. Green for the address.
b. Red for the subject- code & date (right side top
and in a box.)
2. HSLC Examination : a. Blue for the address.
b. Black for the subject-
code & date (right side top
and in a box.)

vii) Centres should avail Speed Post facilities wherever available.

(b) Despatch:

Prior arrangements should be made with the postmaster of the local Post Office so that the sealed packets are delivered to him on the same day of examination for despatch.

- (i) The postmaster should be advised to take precaution if the packets are to be kept overnight.
- (ii) In no case, the packets containing the answer booklets, shall be kept at the centre or any other place overnight.

Disciplinary action shall be taken if the packets are kept overnight in any place except the Post Office/Board's Office.

If, for any unforeseen circumstances, the packets cannot be deposited at the Post Office/Board's Office, directive/instruction must be obtained from the Secretary, NBSE for its safe custody.

- (iii) A daily report containing total number of examinees appeared, absent, expelled, etc. in each subject and any other relevant information shall be sent to the Secretary, NBSE. It should be packed in the packet of the answer booklets.

- (iv) All parcels/insured packets containing the answer booklets of the examination must be sent to the Controller of Examinations by name in the following address:

Nagaland Board of School Education
Post Box- No. 613,
Kohima, Pin Code- 797001.

5. Question papers:

- i) The CS, on receipt of the required information from the Board, shall prepare a statement to determine the number of examinees in each subject from the statement of candidates supplied.
  - ii) CS shall ascertain whether sufficient copies of question papers have been received or not.
  - iii) In case of any shortage or omission in any subject, it shall be reported to the Secretary, NBSE immediately.
  - iv) CS shall collect the confidential packet(s) from the custodian. The timing shall be adjusted as per the distance/flow of traffic in collecting the packets from the custodian. The packets should be in the centre 30 (thirty) minutes before the scheduled time but not more than 45 (forty five) minutes.
- * The Centre superintendent shall NOT in any circumstances assign the task of collecting the confidential materials on their behalf to anyone.

6. Opening of sealed packets:

- i) The sealed packets shall be opened at the centre in the presence of 3 (three) invigilators. For centres where examinees from 2 or more institutions are appearing, invigilators from each institution must be present. They will have to endorse on the envelope: OPENED IN OUR PRESENCE AND SECURITY SEALS FOUND INTACT.

As far as possible, this duty should be rotated among the invigilators from the different institutions.

- ii) The question papers shall be counted before distribution to ascertain that the number tallies with the numbers shown on the sealed envelope and that it is of the scheduled subject. At the time of counting, care shall be taken to ensure that defective question papers are removed. Defective question papers shall be returned to the Board's Office with remark.

- iii) Only the exact number of question papers shall be given in each hall/room.
- iv) Immediately after the distribution of question papers to the examinees, the surplus copies (if any) shall be collected from each room and shall ascertain if the number of copies distributed tallies with the number of examinees present.
If there is any discrepancy, the matter shall be immediately reported to the Secretary, NBSE.
- v) The surplus question papers shall be collected and kept in safe custody till the examination is over.
- vi) No copy of the surplus question papers shall be kept in any examination room or with anybody including the observer, supervisor, invigilator, etc during examination hours.
- vii) After the examination is over, it is expected that the CS compile the question papers into sets. A set of the question paper should be given to the registered (both permitted and recognized) institutions whose students have appeared in the centre.

7. Arrangement of seats:

CS on getting the information about the number of examinees for the centre shall work out a seat plan. The required number of rooms, benches and desks shall be arranged.

- i) A seat plan shall be prepared and notified well ahead of the examination.
A copy of the seat plan shall be sent along with the daily report on the first day of the examination.
- ii) The sitting arrangement shall ensure that examinees from the same institution do not sit close to each other in the examination hall/room.
- iii) CS shall also see that examinees occupy their respective allotted seats only and are seated at a sufficient distance from one another.

- iv) If, in the opinion of the CS, some examinees are suffering from any contagious or infectious disease or where their presence is otherwise likely to be prejudicial to the general body of examinees; special accommodation for such examinees shall be arranged in a segregated place.

In such cases, CS shall take steps to have the answer booklets or other materials handled by such examinees properly fumigated, or otherwise rendered innocuous in consultation with a Medical Practitioner before dispatching the same (see sample of medical certificate at page 33).

Under no circumstances, an examinee shall be allowed to appear in an examination from his or her house or at any other place.

8. Timing:

Details of marks and timing are as follows:-

a. HSSLC Examination

Full Marks	Maximum duration	Minimum duration
100/90/70	3 hours	1 hour
50	2 hours	40 minutes

b. HSLC Examination

Full Marks	Maximum duration	Minimum duration
80/70	3 hours	1 hour
50	2 hours	40 minutes

Minimum duration means the period that an examinee is required to sit in the examination hall/room and cannot leave before that.

9. Preparatory and Revision Time:

To facilitate the students to reflect on the questions, and to plan, organise and revise the answers in an effective manner, 15 (fifteen) minutes time is provided for an examination of 3 (three) hours. This time is inclusive of the hours of examination duration. For examinations of less than 3 (three) hours duration, a proportionate preparatory and revision time is allotted.

10. Distribution of question papers and answer booklets:

- i) Before the distribution of answer scripts, the question papers shall first be distributed to the examinees present. This is to give examinees sufficient time to relax and think before attempting the questions.
- ii) After 5 (five) minutes, the answer booklets shall be distributed to the examinees present.
- iii) 10 (ten) minutes before the hours of examination is over, the bell shall be rung and the invigilators shall advise the examinees to revise their answers.

However, the invigilators shall not insist on the examinees to stop writing till the allotted time is over.

11. Timing for ringing the bell:

The bell shall be rung at different times to signal the invigilators and examinees about the various timings of examination.

- i. 15 (fifteen) minutes ahead of the scheduled time — as a signal for all persons not connected with the examination to leave the premises of the examination centre.
- ii. 5 (five) minutes before the scheduled time — for the examinees to take their seats.
- iii. At the scheduled time — to distribute the question papers to the examinees.
- iv. 5 (five) minutes after the scheduled time — to distribute the answer booklets to the examinees.
- v. Hourly after the scheduled time — to signal completion of 1 hour of the examination duration.
- vi. 10 (ten) minutes before the completion of the scheduled time — to signal that it is revision period. (However, invigilators shall not insist on the examinees to stop writing).
- vii. Final bell — to signal that the examination duration is over.

(Invigilators must collect all the answer booklets immediately).

12. Other arrangements:

- i) Safe drinking water shall be made available at the examination centre.
- ii) Separate urinals for male and female examinees shall be provided / constructed at places where there can be no scope for resorting to any malpractice on the part of the examinees in the absence of surveillance.
- iii) Facilities for first aid, prevention and control of untoward incidents shall be arranged in consultation with the Chairman of the Examination Centre Committee.
- iv) Separate room(s) and necessary facilities shall be arranged for examinees with special needs.
- v) Arrangement outside the examination room shall be made for the examinees to leave their booklets, notes, papers, mobile phones or other materials, which are not allowed in the examination hall. A notice shall be pasted at a prominent place informing that such materials shall be kept there entirely at the examinees' own risk.

13. Invigilation:

- (i) CS shall inform the heads of the registered institutions whose students are appearing in that centre to depute teachers who are noted for their integrity as invigilators. These teachers shall be on duty for the whole period of examination. The institution shall not send teachers on rotation.
- (ii) CS in selecting invigilators shall ensure that persons running tuition centres/coaching centres for the said examination are not given duty. They shall not be given any responsibility in the conduct of the examination.

The CS shall have the right, to refuse to appoint a deputed teacher as an invigilator if he/she is found unfit, as per the rules, to perform the duty.

In the final report, the CS shall give a report if teachers deputed for examination are found to be irresponsible or under the influence of alcohol, drugs, etc.

- (iii) CS shall see that NGO/Student Body are not allowed to enter the examination hall/room during the examination.
- (iv) If for any reason, the CS faces difficulty in appointing invigilators, the matter shall be brought to the notice of the Chairman, Examination Centre Committee for decision.
Decision taken shall be immediately reported to the Secretary, NBSE.
- (v) CS shall obtain a written declaration from the invigilators that they shall not render assistance to any examinee in any form and shall not overlook malpractice/ misbehavior (See sample on page 34).
- (vi) CS shall not delegate his/her duties and responsibilities to the Assistant Centre Superintendent/invigilators without prior approval from the Secretary, NBSE.
- (vii) Experienced invigilators shall not be given duty together in one examination hall / room but shall be paired off separately with new invigilators.
- (viii) Invigilators from the same institution shall not be given duty in the same room.
- (ix) The concerned subject teachers shall not be given invigilation duty in rooms where their students are sitting for the subject.
- (x) The same invigilator shall not supervise the same hall or same group of examinees for more than one sitting.
- (xi) The invigilators shall be informed of their allotted duty room/hall just before the commencement of examination on each day.
- (xii) An invigilator posted at one hall shall not visit another hall during the hours of examination.

- (xiii) No one shall read the answer booklets or make any assessment or comment on the answers or question papers in the examination room.
- (xiv) Disciplinary action shall be initiated against any official who do not adhere to the rules in the conduct of examination.
- (xv) The CS shall write a confidential report, addressed personally to the Secretary, NBSE on any obtrusive behavior of any official on duty at the examination centre.

14. Identification of examinees:

- i) All the examinees shall be identified to the satisfaction of the CS.
- ii) Examinees coming under orders of Change of Centre shall be identified on the first day of the examination by the person who has agreed to be the identifier of the candidate and has signed the application for change of centre and who is approved by the Board.

15. Admission to examination hall:

- i) On the days of the examination, the bell shall be rung 15 (fifteen) minutes before the commencement of the examination as a signal for all persons not connected with the examination to leave the premises of the examination centre.

CS shall see that no such persons are found loitering in or around the premises before the distribution of the question papers to the examinees.
- ii) On each day of the examination, the bell shall be rung 5 (five) minutes before the commencement of the examination as a signal for the examinees to take their seats.

iii) The bell shall be rung precisely at the hour fixed for the commencement of the examination for distribution of the question papers to the examinees.

Invigilators shall distribute the questions papers first and allow the examinees to read it.

iv) After the given time, the bell shall be rung for the invigilators to distribute the answer booklets to the examinees.

v) Ordinarily, an examinee shall not be admitted into the examination hall/room or be given a question paper after 15 (fifteen) minutes of the commencement of examination.

In very special circumstances, the CS may extend this limit up to half an hour. No extra time shall be given to the examinees who come late for the examination.

vi) The examinees shall keep all the materials which are not allowed in the examination hall/room at the designated place before entering the examination halls/rooms.

16. Special powers of the Centre Superintendent:

i) The CS shall expel an examinee who is found guilty of an offence for which he / she is liable to expulsion under the rules.

The matter shall be reported in the prescribed form stating fully the facts and circumstances, and evidence against the examinee.

This report, together with the answer booklets of the examinee in which he/she has been held guilty under penalty for resorting to malpractice and the incriminating document shall be submitted in a separate sealed cover addressed personally to the Secretary, NBSE while dispatching the answer booklets. [Without evidence, an examinee may not be expelled but should be given warning.]

- ii) CS with prior permission from the Secretary, NBSE, may make necessary modifications or addition to the existing instructions or rules as per the necessity, for the smooth and fair conduct of the examination without contravening the general principles of prevention of malpractice.
- iii) In the event of any contingency arising during the examination, if in the opinion of the CS, the line of action to be taken on such contingency is not covered by these instructions, the CS shall consult the Chairman, Examination Centre Committee or contact Secretary, NBSE for instruction.
If the time does not permit, CS shall have the discretion to take such action as he/she deems necessary and fit and shall at the earliest opportunity thereafter, report his/her action to the Secretary, NBSE.
- iv) The CS shall write a confidential report on the conduct of the examination, and on officials involved in the examination at the centre addressed personally to the Secretary, NBSE.

17. Officials for examination works:

- i) The Chairman of the Examination Centre Committee shall appoint supervising officer(s) from amongst the magistrates/administrative officers, who shall supervise the entire period of examination.
