

Worksheet 19: Tenses 2

Name: _____ Class: _____ Roll No.: _____ Date: _____

A. State whether the sentences are in the past perfect continuous or present perfect continuous tense.

1. They have been planting trees since morning. _____
2. He had been performing well last term. _____
3. We had been studying in the library when we heard the news. _____
4. Martha has been working in this office for a long time. _____
5. The frontline workers have been attending to their duties conscientiously ever since the outbreak. _____
6. The police had been patrolling the streets for a week right after the incident.

B. State whether the sentences are in the simple future, future continuous or future perfect continuous tense.

1. I shall leave for Mumbai tomorrow. _____
2. Will Apam be joining us for dinner? _____
3. By December, I will have completed the course. _____
4. They will be leaving for London when you arrive here tonight. _____
5. By this time tomorrow, we will have been driving to Jaipur for two hours.

C. Fill in the blanks as instructed.

1. If we reach early, _____. (present conditional tense)
2. If I had known this earlier _____. (hypothetical conditional tense)
3. If he had applied for the job on time _____.
(past perfect conditional tense)
4. If you had driven more carefully _____.
(past perfect conditional tense)
5. If I knew where she lived, _____. (hypothetical conditional tense)
6. If I were an elephant _____. (hypothetical conditional tense)
7. My mother will get angry _____. (present conditional tense)
8. I would have completed the task _____. (past perfect conditional tense)