

Worksheet 9: She Walks in Beauty

Name: _____ Class: _____ Roll No.: _____ Date: _____

Tick (✓) the correct option.

1. Which expression denotes gentleness in the woman's demeanour?
 - a. like the night
 - b. cloudless climes and starry skies
 - c. to that tender light
2. Why does the poet compare the woman's beauty to 'cloudless climes and starry skies'?
 - a. To emphasise the clarity and the brightness of her beauty.
 - b. To focus on the blueness of her eyes.
 - c. Neither a. nor b.
3. Day light in comparison to night is:
 - a. gaudy
 - b. brighter
 - c. more chaotic
4. What would impair the beauty of the woman?
 - a. Her beauty would be impaired if she walks in the gaudy daylight.
 - b. The balance between shade and light is so perfect that if one added one more shade, or took away a single ray of light, it would impair the woman's beauty.
 - c. If her hair had more curls.
5. How are her thoughts expressed in her face?
 - a. Melancholically
 - b. Serenely
 - c. Joyously
6. 'So soft, so calm, yet eloquent.' What does 'eloquent' mean?
 - a. Graciousness
 - b. Tranquility
 - c. Clearly expressing something
7. What do the winsome smile and the glowing skin testify to?
 - a. It testifies to a much disciplined lifestyle.
 - b. It testifies to a life spent in goodness.
 - c. It testifies the beauty of the woman.